PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Thanks to everyone who participated in our High Holiday services and to all who helped prepare for the break-fast. Thanks also to Rabbi Ginsburg and Cantor McCord for aesthetically and spiritually uplifting services. Thanks to Mike Gersten again for being our high holiday Gabbi and also for taking charge of building our Succah again this year. Thanks in advance to everyone who helps with the building and decorating of our Succah. We are anticipating joyful Succoth, Shmini Atzeret and and Simchat Torah services led by our student rabbis. We also hope to get off to a great start to our religious school year. Our first class on Sunday, September 30th will start off with a short children's service oriented to Succoth, taking the etrog and lulav and learning a couple of spirited songs from the Hallel. Thanks in advance to student rabbi Yael Werber for helping with this. This is always a hectic time of year Jewishly but please take the time to enjoy it together with us at Shaaray Tefila.

SYNAGOGUE NEWS, ANNOUNCEMENTS & IMPORTANT DATES

Congregation Shaaray Tefila would like to thank Binley's Florist, & A Lasting Impression Florist for their flower donations to our Rosh Hashanah Floral Centerpiece Fundraiser. Also, a big special thanks to: Dolly Morrissey, Sharon Aronson, Kristi Madigan, Bonnie Yanklowitz, Lana Studley, Nancy Goldstein and Francine Torra for assisting in the assembly and delivery of all of the centerpieces this year!

Please Note!

The Friday night service will remain at 7PM indefinitely. A recent poll taken concludes this time seems to work best for the majority whom attend Friday evening service. However, service time will remain at 6:30PM when held at The Glen on the second Friday of each month.

DANCING WITH THE TORAH

Join us to celebrate Simchat Torah with prayer and dancing! Monday, October 1, 2018 and Tuesday, October 2, 2018.

Simchat Torah is the day on which we read the last part of the Torah and roll it right back to the beginning to read the first part. Like Sukkot, Simchat Torah is a happy time. On Sukkot we're thankful for the harvest which gives us food for our bodies. On Simchat Torah we're thankful for the Torah which gives us food for thought.

The Torah is probably the most important Jewish object there is. We show it lots of honor. We stand when it is taken out or put away. We stand whenever it is held up. We give it the same honor that people would show a king.

On Simchat Torah the congregation dances with the Torah scrolls. All the Torah scrolls are removed from the Aron Kodesh (Holy Ark) and distributed to members of the congregation. One member leads the other Torah-bearing members in a circuit around the Synagogue. The leader leads the congregation in reciting special prayers. When the circuit is completed, the congregation sings and dances until it is time to start the next hakafa (circuit). This is done seven times.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

LUNCH & LEARN: OCTOBER 5th

Please join us for the first Community Engagement (CEP) Lunch and Learn of the year! Feel free to invite your staff, leadership, or friends- this is a meal not to be missed! When: Friday October 5th at Noon

Speaker: Scholar Rabbi Mike Moskowitz

Topic: "Welcoming the Other: The Jewish Institutional Role in Allyship".

Cost: $5/person

Who: open to the whole community

Where: Jewish Federation of Northeastern NY 184 Washington Ave Ext Albany NY 12203

RSVP by: October 3rd at noon

Rabbi Moskowitz is currently the Scholar-in-Residence for Trans and Queer Jewish Studies at CBST in NYC. He prefers Pronouns: He/Him. Rabbi Mike Moskowitz is a deeply traditional and radically progressive advocate for trans rights and a vocal ally for LGBT inclusivity. Raised as a secular Jew in Richmond, Virginia, he began identifying as Orthodox at 17 and spent the next 20 years learning and teaching in the world of veshivahs. Rabbi Moskowitz received three Ultra Orthodox ordinations while learning in the Mir, in Jerusalem, and in Beth Medrash Gevoha, in Lakewood, New Jersey. His work on behalf of trans rights began while he served as the Rabbi of the Old Broadway Synagogue in Harlem and as the Aish NY Rabbi at Columbia University. Most recently, Rabbi Moskowitz was the senior educator for Uri L'Tzedek -Orthodox Social Justice. His focus at CBST is to study, write and teach on trans issues and Jewish sources, creating a body of work that Jews all over the world will be able to use.

Rabbi Moskowitz will be in our community from October 4-7 and is available to teach, learn, discuss, and share throughout weekend. Please contact KB for more information.
