STUDENT RABBI
DAVID JOSLIN

Happy October everyone,

As we enter into the month of October and the Hebrew month of Cheshvan, we pause to reflect on where we have been and where we are going. The summer is definitively over. School is back in session. Baseball is making way for football, and the leaves have turned. We have just rushed through an intense month of holidays, but now we can finally settle into the cooler, crisper Fall season with all its comforting familiarity.

During this month we will return our Torah scrolls back to the beginning of Creation and time. We dare to imagine what the world was like before humans – some surreal sunrise over desert mountain lakes, bellowing up with smoke and molten lava, during the first few days of Creation. We contemplate what it would have been like to sneak onto Noah's Ark as a stowaway while the waters rose all around. Or, maybe we try to warn Lot's wife not to turn away at the last second! The first four parshiyot/weekly Torah readings are jammed back with some of the most important, vivid, and captivating stories that have influenced so many of our lives.

By reacclimating ourselves to the stories of our youth, we reclaim a lot of the nostalgia surrounding family, holidays, Hebrew school, and may other childhood memories. During this month, I invite us to search for the Bereshit stories of our youth which fascinated, mesmerized, confused, or ignited a spark within each and every one of us. Let us turn the Torah and the clock back to what we loved most about Torah, and let us now find newer and deeper meaning in the year to come.

Chodesh tov,

Student Rabbi David

SYNAGOGUE PRESIDENT
MARK HOFFMAN

Thanks to David Joslin, Adah Hetko, Lucy Passaro and all who came and participated in high holiday services. Once again, Dan Korot demonstrated amazing stamina on the shofar – he gets better every year. Thanks to all who read Torah and joined us for services and events. Our Sukkot and Shabbat services have also been great this year. It was great to see old and new members of the Shaaray Tefila family. Hopefully, we will have Covid-free holidays next year.

Thanks also to everyone who donated to the Yom Kippur appeal and paid dues this year. Every donation, whether it be of time or money, helps keep Shaaray Tefila a vibrant center for Jewish life in our region.

Once again, I wish you all a happy, healthy new year.

Mark Hoffman

CONGREGATIONAL ENGAGEMENT &
COMMUNITY COORDINATOR

Hello, my dearest friends,

I greatly enjoyed meeting so many of you at the Holiday services, and hope to meet more of you at future services and events! It was lovely getting to finally put faces to names, and what a treat it was, meeting some new, friendly faces, as well! A special thank you to Mark, Rabbi David, Adah, Larry, Bonnie, Katie, and everyone else who made the services possible.

So we made it through the High Holidays: the renewal of the Jewish individual, and the collective judgment of the Jewish nation. We humbled ourselves in front of the Almighty. We reflected on the previous year, took an honest look at our missteps, and assessed where we've been... so who are we now? Washed clean of our wrongdoings, where do we go and grow from here? How can we improve, regenerate, and recreate? How can we take the post-Yom Kippur feeling of lightness and levity with us throughout the year? How can we be like HaShem and practice non-judgment and unconditional love? Not just for others' sake, but for our own sake, as well.

I Pray that you all are able to see your own growth and are able to be patient with your own process. We are all works in progress; teshuva is a lifelong endeavor. You are exactly where you need to be at this moment. I have Faith that HaShem is renewing, forgiving, loving, and protecting us as we are in our constant state of becoming... do you?

Remember that there is no future in the past.
Onward into the new year!

Do be gentle with yourselves.

Shula (Lucy) Passaro

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

Fall Greetings Everyone,

Hope the September holidays went well and the High Holidays, Succot and other holiday service experiences were meaningful to you.

I (Bonnie) was pleased with all that Dr. Mark Hoffman and others shared this year. Cantor Adah Hetko (her voice was so beautiful and angelic) and Student Rabbi David Joslin provided great experiences with in-person services. Shula Passaro and Mark were super with ZOOM.

Dan Korot's Shofar blasts were amazing again this year. Dan, Rabbi David and President Mark gave us a great ending with blasts as Yom Kippur ended.

On behalf of Sisterhood, stay safe and healthy this fall.

Mazel Tov and congratulations to Cher and Mark Hoffman on the marriage of their daughter, Shira to James Kropp.

Thinking of Ruth Goldman, Rose Rothstein, Sharon Aronson and Dolly Chary-Morrissey with prayers, love and peace.

Sisterhood extends deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Sue Levine. [I, Bonnie, babysat for their daughters Lisa and Debbie before I left for college in Buffalo before their son Larry was born.]

Thank you for your Sisterhood dues payment and addition donations which we have been receiving. Deadline for dues will be November 15th.

Thank you again with more sponsors for an Oneg and/or Kiddush this fall.

Much appreciation to Mark & Cher Hoffman and Francine Torra for volunteering your time to shop and safely prepare foods. Thank you to Shula Passaro and Nancy Kudan for assisting with preparing foods in September. We continue to need additional help. We are grateful also to those who set out the food and drinks prior to services and assist with clean-up.

Kudos to Rebecca Charhon, Director of the Combined Temple-Synagogue Religious School and all for a successful year with ZOOM. Best wishes for a good, safe year to the teachers, parents, students, assistants and all with weekly changes for the year.

Please continue to support our gift shop. Contact me, Nancy, with any questions at 518-792-2700 from 5-8 pm.

Still working on a meeting date with many schedules to consider.

Have a safe fall season.

TEMPLE-SYNAGOGUE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Shanah Tovah! It hard to believe that when you see this, the High Holidays and Sukkot will be behind us. Our season of apples and honey, working to become better people, celebrating the Festival of Booths and looking forward to what comes next on the Jewish calendar is a calming and peaceful time for me! I hope it is for you as well. As always, we welcomed the holidays in style at TSRS with family services and unique ways to learn about the beauty and significance they hold. Whether this meant symbolically holding a Tashlich service on zoom while casting away our sins by writing them down on paper and creating out own "pools" of water, waving the lulav and Etrog either on zoom or in our Sukkah, recollecting our memories of building and decorating the Sukkah or talking about what we would bring into our own personal Sukkah, we found ways to shine as a school community. At the time this is published we remain virtual but we can't wait to be back together in person as community of students, student aides and teachers!

My summer was busy and as always, Jewish education was my number one priority as I began contemplating and planning for the 2021-2022 TSRS school year. I participated in the NewCaje Jewish Educators conference once again this summer as well as taking a class on Educating Jewish Adolescents through my Master's Program at Gratz. The highlight of my summer however, was working with Isaac Goldstein as we continued to prepare for his Bar Mitzvah. Isaac worked hard and did a fabulous job chanting and reading from the Torah and Haftorah and leading us in many prayers on both Friday night and Saturday morning. Isaac is continuing with us as a teen aide and looks forward to both helping with the school and continuing his Jewish education.

I wish you all a happy and healthy new year.
