STUDENT RABBI MICAH FRIEDMAN

L'Shanah Tovah! To a Good year!

As we wrap up the month of September, we welcome in a new year on our Jewish calendar. Spending Rosh Hashanah in Glens Falls was a wonderful experience for me! I enjoyed getting to share with you in prayer, to get to know many more members of the community and to share my reflections on the themes of this time of year. Now, as we welcome October and look ahead to Yom Kippur, we are in a period of ongoing reflection, introspection and repentance.

“On Rosh Hashanah it is written and on Yom Kippur it is sealed.” We repeated these words together from a classic heart-wrenching section of our high holiday liturgy. Jewish tradition teaches us that in this season each of our actions carry extra weight. Even more so than other times of year, each of our choices will send waves out into the world which will impact others. We hope that we will all be sealed in the book of life for the year to come and we are offered a week to begin to behave in better and more compassionate ways.

In uncertain anticipation of what the year ahead will hold for us, we are encouraged by our tradition to make the most of these fall days. We put in effort to rectify conflicts in our relationships and come to mutual understanding and reconciliation. This is the perfect time to reach out to a friend or relative with whom you have previously had conflict or simply fallen out of touch. Tell them what they mean to you and try to return warmth and tenderness into your relationship. As the leaves start to change color and even fall from the trees, we are reminded of the preciousness of our lives and the lives of our loved ones. This season provides us with a chance to tell others what they mean to us and to affirm our care and support for one another.

Though I write to you now from the days in between our New Year and Day of Atonement, these holy days will pass us by early in the month of October. After Yom Kippur, there will still be Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Our holiday season extends through most of October. Though the mood becomes progressively more joyous as we march ahead towards Simchat Torah, we remain called to the difficult interpersonal work of teshuva, of repentance and reconciliation. Even though Yom Kippur will soon be in our rearview mirror, let us not lose sight of the constant need for compassionate and considerate ways of relating to each other. Even as we move past the high holiday season, we will still have the responsibility and the opportunity to choose how we want to be in this year to come. I pray this year will bring connection, community, good health and ongoing spiritual growth for each and every member of our community!

G'mar Hatimah Tovah - May you be sealed well in the book of life!

Student Rabbi Micah Friedman

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

Thanks to Bill Brender for arranging the wonderful Selichot and Sunday school programs with the Kirtan Rabbi. They were great experiences for those who attended in-person or on Zoom.

Thanks to Micah and Rabbi Talia for creating great shabbat experiences for us in September. We look forward to singing and studying together with them for the high holidays. Please consult the bulletin for holiday service schedules. Note that for those who are not yet able to participate indoors, we had an outdoor shofar blowing both days of Rosh Hashanah and will again at the end of Yom Kippur. Also note that Yom Kippur Yizkor will be available both in-person on Yom Kippur morning and on Zoom at the end of Yom Kippur.

We also look forward to celebrating the Sukkot-related holidays and shabbatot with you. Please consult the bulletin or weekly announcements for details.

Cher and I wish you Shanah Tova.

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

Fall and Holiday Greetings,
Hope September ends well for you with Rosh Hashanah. Happy, healthy and peaceful New Year (5783).

Continued healing wishes to Dolly Chary-Morrissey, Dr. Syd Hochman and several members and friends of Congregation Shaaray Tefila and Sisterhood.

Although our summer Sisterhood meeting had low attendance, the support was appreciated. Some important and useful suggestions were discussed which took longer than planned. A New Year project was suggested. Several small baskets were delivered with Kedem grape juice and honey (donated by Glen St. Price Chopper/Market 32), apples (donated by South Glens Falls Hannaford) and a round challah purchased from Albany Market 32 to our older members, shut-ins and a few people having surgery soon. Each person deeply appreciated receiving the basket from Sisterhood.

Officers needed to be discussed. New President or Co-Presidents are needed. Let Bonnie know.

Thank you to Katie Weaver for offering her time and assistance with ZOOM. Newest Sisterhood member, Katie Weaver offered to be secretary. Special Happy Birthday (9/22) to our Office Manager who assists Sisterhood, Congregation Shaaray Tefila, Temple Beth El and several communities with so much!

Services with Student Rabbi Micah Friedman prior to the new year went very well. Happy New Year to Micah and friend, Rabbi Talia and looking forward to High Holiday Services with you.

Thank you to Bonnie Yanklowitz, anonymous donors, Bill Brender, and Sunny Buchman for sponsoring in September. (Also to Sisterhood, Sunny Buchman, Cher Hoffman and Rabbi Talyah for providing foods at small Kiddushes for Rosh Hashanah.)

Many thanks to everyone who helped in any way (especially the prep and cleanup) with Oneg or Kiddushes in September including: Cher, Mark and Joe Hoffman, Francine Torra, Susan & David Matzner, Elaine & Salomon Charhon, Pinchas Shabat, Judy & Dr. Allan Korot, Bill Brender, Nancy & Peter Kudan, Dr. Syd Hochman, Student Rabbi Micah & Rabbi Talyah, Faye Landsman, Laurent Amar, Dr. Ephraim Back, Nancy Goldstein, Rebecca Charhon, Johnnie, Bruce Hafter, Mark Chernoff. Additional thanks to Susan Matzner for assisting on Saturday mornings to finish the Kiddush and to Salomon Charhon for clearing and washing everything. Also to Francine Torra, Cher Hoffman and Nancy Goldstein for preparing on Friday morning for Sunny Buchman's September 24th Kiddush. A few more Sisterhood members and friends have volunteered to assist with Oneg and Kiddush preparations and shopping. More help would be welcomed and appreciated.

Congregation Shaaray Tefila and Sisterhood extend deepest sympathy on the passing of Michael Lebowitz to the Lebowitz Families: wife Bonnie, sons Stephen and David, grandchildren, and brothers Edward and Neil, cousins and more.

Susan Matzner and I prepared a Mourner's Meal for the Lebowitz Families. Mike Kanofsky, Mike Berkowitz, my friend Cindy Cutler, and I transported the food to Neil's home. Nancy Kudan and I set foods out immediately following the funeral. Lisa and Mark Lebowitz took care of bagels, coffee and beverages. Nancy and Peter Kudan, Neil Lebowitz, nephews and sisters-in-law assisted with clean-up.

Thank you to Kristi Madigan and Mike Berkowitz for additional help to me and the synagogue in September.

Mazel Tov to the following with special birthdays and anniversaries: Ilana Marmon-80th, Nancy Kudan-70th, Julie Cohen-70th, Ruth Shapiro-98th, Robin & Mitchell Cohen-50th and Roberta & Sam Gottseman-10th.

October greetings to members and friends who live in Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas and other areas of New York State.

Sisterhood welcomes congregation's new member, Gerry Hyman. Gerry moved here from AZ and lives with her daughter, Sue. Francine, Cher and Gerry sit together at Saturday services and Gerry really enjoys the camaraderie during the Kiddush luncheon.

Kudos to Bill Brender and community support (Judy & Dr. Allan Korot and I refreshments) for the wonderful evening of Hebrew music and audience participation with the special instrument (a harmonium) provided by Kirtan Rabbi Andrew Hahn in addition to guitar and drumming for Selichot.

Good health and safe days to each of you for Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah. Reminder - check the bulletin calendars and announcements for service dates and times.

Wishing you an easy fast and Yom Tov,

Bonnie Yanklowitz,
Interim Sisterhood President

TEMPLE-SYNAGOGUE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

L'Shana Tova to the Temple community!
As I write this at the end of September,
we have only had two sessions of TSRS
yet our year will be filled with interactive learning that will incorporate Hebrew, Jewish holidays, Israel education, music and more. We started our year off with an amazing baking project to honor the Jewish New Year. We put a twist on the standard apples and honey and made apple turnovers with the amazing teacher and baker, Sharla! Our second session included a music workshop with the Kirtan Rabbi who takes Jewish prayer music and brings it to a new level of spirituality, joy and meaningfulness.

I had the honor of working with Tanis Ives over the past 10 months to prepare him for his Bar Mitzvah and he did an amazing job on September 24th!
Through our months of learning together, he worked so hard to excel at the Hebrew and prayers. The lessons that I have with the Bar and Bat Mitzvah students bring me such joy and every student with whom I work is a true blessing. They challenge me, always ask great questions and I bet if you asked any of them, they would tell you that the lessons are more fun than they ever expected!

There is so much to look forward to this TSRS year.
We will have challah baking with Rebecca Spraragen, our top notch Temple challah baker! We will continue the longtime tradition of monthly family services where every child participates so it truly becomes a service which they feel proud of.
We will continue to explore lifecycle events and we look forward to preparing Mattea, Lucy and Molly for their Bat Mitzvah ceremonies next year. We will have local artist Bill Brender come lead an interactive art workshop with our students to create their own expressive artwork with the Hebrew letters. We will celebrate each holiday with the enthusiasm that our children bring to every Judaic studies lesson while encouraging discussion and an open conversation about their own family traditions and how they personally celebrate Judaism. This is just a small selection of what I have planned for the year!

I truly wish you all the very best during the next few months. I cannot wait to share what we have accomplished during our first semester. In closing, I would like to share a beautiful reading and prayer that appears in Mishkan HaNefesh for Youth that felt especially meaningful when preparing for the upcoming High Holiday children's services. I hope you will enjoy it as much as I do.

We are gifts and we are blessings,
we are history in song.

We are hope and we are healing,
we are learning to be strong.

We are words and we are stories,
we are pictures of the past.

We are carriers of wisdom, not the first and not the last

L'dor vador nigid godlecha,

L'dor vador, we protect this chain.

From generation to generation, l'dor vador,
these lips will praise Your name.

L'Dor vador, these lips will praise Your name

Looking back on the journey that we carry in our heart,

From the shadow of the mountain

to that waters that would part,

We are blessed and we are holy,

we are children of Your way.

And the words that bring us meaning,

We will have the strength to say

L'dor vador
