NOVEMBER 2022

CHESHVAN-KISLEV 5783

STUDENT RABBI MICAH FRIEDMAN

Shalom Aleikhem! Greetings of peace and well-being to all whose eyes come across these words! We have made it to another month, again greeting the secular month of November soon after we welcome the Hebrew month of Heshvan. But, this time around, we find ourselves on the other side of a full season of Jewish holidays. Over the past several weeks, I had the blessing of sharing Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot with many of you in Glens Falls. Over the course of these holidays, I spent time with members of our Jewish community ranging from 3-years-old to 99-years-old and I feel enriched for having had the opportunity to join together in prayer, study, and socializing.

As we step off from the high holy day season, we prepare to enter a lull in the Jewish calendar. Though there are days which are celebrated as holidays at the end of each of the secular months of late Fall and early Winter, our calendar takes a break from holidays until Hannukah. Rather than special celebrations, now is the season to settle into routines. After serious reflection and introspection into the ways we would like to improve our behavior in this new year, we now have the opportunity to integrate these goals into our regular daily routines. As the seasons continue to change, we have the chance to continue to change ourselves through making deliberate and intentional choices about how to structure our days.

In the daily, traditional liturgy for morning, afternoon, and evening, we repeat our gratitude for "the miracles which are with us in each day." Even when our rituals are not elaborate, our tradition encourages us to recognize the miraculous all around us and to articulate gratitude and appreciation! Let us take the opportunity this month to notice the wondrous around us and be thankful.

In that spirit, I will be teaching a two-part series of the fundamental Jewish structure for articulating gratitude: berakhot. Berakhos - usually translated as "blessings" - are possibly the most easily recognizable part of Jewish prayer. Yet, for thousands of years Jews have debated how to understand the radical act of making blessings. I hope many of you will join my on zoom twice this month for an exploration of the power of our blessings. I wish for you all nothing but blessings in this new month!

Student Rabbi Micah Friedman

PRESIDENT
MARK HOFFMAN

As Jews, we all know that the real "Holiday Season" has just passed. I would like to thank all those who attended and participated in synagogue activities, whether it was on Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Succoth, or Shemini Atzeret/Simchat Torah and all the Shabbatot in between. What a great opportunity it was to pray, sing, discuss, socialize, eat, and laugh together, often for the first time since the onset of the pandemic. A very special joyous Simchat Torah was had by all, in part due to a surprise influx of lively young families on Erev Simchat Torah.

Thanks to all who pledged to our Yom Kippur appeal and have made dues payments. Your donations and dues payments are an important ingredient in helping Shaaray Tefila fulfill its mission of helping people in our region do Jewish things together. It's never too late to make a donation.

We are looking forward to the combined Shaaray Tefila/Temple Beth El family service, which will be held at Shaaray Tefila on November 4 at 6:15 PM, followed by a potluck vegetarian dinner. Foods that do not require re-heating are best. We will provide some beverages and kosher ice cream cake. If possible, please let Katie in the office know what you are bringing so we can make sure we have about the right amounts of everything. Micah Friedman will be with us for the entire weekend.

Please also join Micah for two special havdalah and discussion Zoom sessions on November 12 and November 26 at 6:30 PM. We will be sharing conversation about blessings with Micah at those times.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Mark Hoffman

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

Fall Greetings,

Hope October ended well for you with Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah-dancing with the Torahs. I heard there was much festivity for the holidays with children and families visiting our area. I was in Lake Worth, Florida with Dolly Chary-Morrissey for her 87th birthday on October 15th. We were at her Temple B'nai Jacobs' services. I was honored with an Aliyah as a visitor and in honor of Dolly for her birthday. She and her family send greetings to everyone in Glens Falls & vicinity. Dolly was able to talk with a few friends from Congregation Shaaray Tefila when I visited.

Thoughts and prayers to several congregants with homes in western Florida who had damage to their homes with the hurricane. Hope you are back living in your home now. Stay safe.

Continued healing wishes to Dolly Chary-Morrissey, Dr. Syd Hochman and several members and friends of Sisterhood and Congregation Shaaray Tefila.

The New Year project suggested at the August virtual meeting went very well although more volunteers were needed. A friend of mine helped assemble and deliver the baskets to our older members, shut-ins, local new members and a few people who had surgery. Surgeries and healing went very well. Each person was appreciative when receiving a basket.

Many thanks to Katie Weaver for assisting Sisterhood with thank you letters to Price Chopper and Hannaford.

The program for the virtual meeting was sharing memories about Sisterhood through the years. Some members shared their memories. There was no time to discuss officers. Officers are needed for the following: President or Co-Presidents and Vice President for Education. Please let Bonnie know your interest. Then a meeting and voting will take place. There was discussion at the meeting for more assistance with oneg and kiddush preparations and clean up. Several people volunteered already. More volunteers are always welcome and appreciated.

High Holiday Services with Student Rabbi Micah Friedman went very well. Services with Micah and friend, Rabbi Talyah were well attended for Yom Kippur October 4th & 5th.

Thank you to all who sponsored in October: Anonymous & Sisterhood, Bunny Palmer, Andy Chary & Sisterhood, Elaine & Salomon Charhon, JC Patrick and Anonymous.

Many thanks to everyone who helped in any way (especially the prep and cleanup) with Oneg or Kiddushes in October including: Cher, Mark and Joe Hoffman, Francine Torra, Gerry Hyman, Susan & David Matzner, Elaine & Salomon Charhon, Pinchas Shabat, Judy & Dr. Allan Korot, Bill Brender, Nancy & Peter Kudan, Dr. Syd Hochman, Student Rabbi Micah & Rabbi Talyah, Faye Landsman, Laurent Amar, Dr. Ephraim Back, Nancy Goldstein, Rebecca Charhon, Bruce Hafter, Mark Chernoff, Johnnie, his mother and me. Thanks to those who helped on October 17th & 18th. Thank you to Francine Torra, Judy Korot and Bill Brender on October 22.

Additional thanks to Susan Matzner, Francine Torra, Cher Hoffman and Bill Brender for assisting on Saturday mornings to finish the Kiddush and to Salomon and many others for clearing and washing all items.

More Sisterhood members and friends have volunteered to assist with Oneg and Kiddush preparations and shopping. Many thanks!

Thank you to Katie Weaver, Kristi Madigan and Mike Berkowitz for additional help to Sisterhood and the synagogue in October.

Mazel Tov to the following with special October birthdays and anniversaries: Hilda Schwartz on her 94th birthday, Claire Kantrowitz on her 94th birthday, and happy 30th anniversaries to Susan & Stephen Goldstein, Mr. & Mrs. Leonard Kaplan, and Jo-Ann & Michael Rapaport.

November greetings to members and friends who live in Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas and other areas of New York State.

Reminder - check the bulletin calendars and announcements for upcoming events and service dates/times.

Looking forward to the combined Synagogue-Temple Family Service and potluck dinner on November 4th. In an effort to provide a variety of foods, please let Katie know what vegetarian item you plan to bring.

Good health and safe days to each of you for November. Healthy, Happy Thanksgiving to all.
