JUNE 2023

SIVAN—TAMMUZ

5783

STUDENT RABBI
MICAH FRIEDMAN

Hodesh Tov! “May this month renew for us lives of goodness and blessing, long lives of peace and prosperity filled with awe of G!d and love of Torah!”

When we gathered together for Shabbat on May 20th, we recited this traditional prayer for a new month. Each and every month, this prayer reflects our aspirations and Jews, as humans, and as a community. A strong and spirited group gathered together for Shabbes morning davenning! I hope that June will bring more Shabbat mornings filled with song, prayer and Torah and early afternoons eating fish and coconut cookies. Thank you to all those who continue to feed this community.

In Sivan, towards the end of May this year, we celebrate Shavuot - the festival of the gift of Torah. We gathered online to learn together as yontif approached and the community came together in person in honor of the hag on Friday and Saturday.

Over the first weekend in June, on Sunday the 4th, I will receive semikha (rabbinic ordination) from Hebrew College. As you can imagine, this feels like a weight period in my life. The semikha ceremony is available to be live-streamed on the Hebrew College website beginning at 12:00 PM. (HebrewCollege.edu)

The following weekend, Shabbat of June 10-11, I look forward to spending one more Shabbat together as Shaaray Tefillah's student rabbi! In the late afternoon, as shabbos wanes away, everyone is invited to join me at shul for a seudah shlishit, a light third meal of Shabbat. We will have a chance to shmooze, nosh, discuss some Torah and sing together.

With a sense of bitter-sweetness I look forward to coming together for one more shabbes morning service at 9:30 on June 11th. I expect it will be a moving experience to celebrate shabbos together and reflect on this year together. To all, a good month! Hodesh tov!

Sincerely,

Student Rabbi Micah Friedman

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

Join us to pray and study with Rabbi Micah Friedman during the weekend of June 9 and 10. We will have a kiddush in his honor June 10 as we say good-bye but also celebrate his ordination as rabbi. We will also have a light meal and study session with him followed by Havdalah that evening.

Watch for a Friday evening Kabbalat Shabbat and dessert in Crandall Park this summer as well as a joint picnic with Temple Beth El. Dates to be announced. Please contact Syd Hochman to offer assistance with picnic preparations.

Please plan to attend our Congregational Meeting Sunday, July 30 at 7PM. Among topics to address will be synagogue leadership and budget. We are looking for a few good people to help lead our congregation into the future. Please contact me or another board member if you are or might be willing to serve on our board.

Best wishes to you and your families for a wonderful spring and summer.

Mark Hoffman

SISTERHOOD
GREETINGS & NEWS

Early summer greetings,

Hope spring ends well for all of us.

As I continue to heal with various complications, I appreciate your caring concern, prayers, additional help with rides, Sisterhood shopping and help with Onegs and Kiddushes. A special thank you to Joe

What a surprise to see our longtime Gabbi Mike Gersten visiting at Saturday services the weekend of May 20th. His wife Amy's father, Gus DelSignore was to be honored for his years of service with adult housing in Glens Falls. Our best to you and yours, Mike. So glad you could visit!

Mazel Tov to Sunny Buchman, her daughter Rebecca Kimelmann and Family on the marriage of granddaughter Mika to Nir on May 24th in Israel. Sunny was able to travel to Israel with Paul's (in blessed memory) sister, Irene.

Congratulations and Mazel Tov to Rabbi Micah Friedman on his Rabbinic Ordination/Semicha in Boston on Sunday, June 4th. We were honored that you were with our Sisterhood and congregation this past year. Thank you for visiting our elderly 'shut-in' members. They welcomed and enjoyed your visits. Sisterhood appreciated your assistance with Onegs and Kiddushes, your personal time with each of us on Shabbos and your services & teachings this past year.

Look forward to seeing you on Friday, June 9th for the Oneg in honor of Cher Hoffman's birthday sponsored by Laura & Elizabeth Fram and Saturday's Kiddush sponsored by Congregation Shaaray Tefila and Sisterhood to honor Rabbi Micah's ordination.
