Dancing with the Torah

RABBI INTERN DAVID MALAMUD

The new year is upon us! Perhaps even sooner than you might think.

A midrash from Pesikta d'Rav Kahana 23:1 states:

תני ר' אליעזר בעשרים וחמשה באלול נברא העולם
“Rabbi Eliezer taught: the world was created on the twenty-fifth of Elul?!”

Why would Rabbi Eliezer teach this?

You may be shocked to learn this, I certainly was. The Torah doesn't actually say that the first day of the seventh month is a new year at all, let alone the day the world was created! Only starting in the Mishnah, which is redacted in 220 CE, do we even get the idea that the first day of the seventh month is Rosh Hashanah, the new year for counting years. The Mishnah is far more concerned with painting Rosh Hashanah as judgment day for humans, something which our liturgy and most Jews associate more with Yom Kippur. It almost makes sense that the Torah doesn't call the first day of the seventh month a new year, since it is the seventh month after all.

But what about our Rosh Hashanah? Should we not celebrate this holiday as a holiday of creation? We sing the joyful piyyut, היום הרת עולם. Today the World was Born, and we tell our children it is the birthday of the world. But if it were the creation of the world, shouldn't read Bereishit 1, the story of the creation of the world? Instead, we read about the birth of Isaac and the sacrifice of Isaac. Why? The Tosefta Megillah presents a simple, but in my opinion, unsatisfactory answer: G-d visited Sarah and blessed her on Rosh Hashanah so that she could give birth. Certainly, other biblical events happened on Rosh Hashanah, so why do we highlight this one?

The opening midrash from Pesikta d'Rav Kahana continues:

בראש השנה נברא אדם הראשון
“On Rosh Hashanah, the first Adam was created.”

The midrash further breaks down that sixth day of creation, hour by hour, until Adam and Eve are pardoned, the implication being that just as Adam and Eve were pardoned on Rosh Hashanah, so too we will be pardoned. I think that this is why we read the last two chapters of Parashat Vayeira, the birth of Isaac and the sacrifice of Isaac. Both stories reflect G-d's judgment and mercy. G-d has mercy on Sarah and lets her conceive and G-d has mercy on Abraham and Isaac and spares Isaac. Nachmanides, the Ramban, calls Rosh Hashanah “Yom Hadin B'rachamim,” (Vayikra 23:24), the Day of Judgment with Mercy.

It is futile to avoid judging people in our own lives. I certainly am guilty of this sin. During these days of awe and for this following year, I invite us all (myself very much included) to emulate G-d in these moments. Inevitably, we will judge other, but I hope that we can temper that judgment with mercy.

Shanah tova u'metuka!

Rabbinic Intern David Malamud

SYNAGOGUE PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

Shaaray Tefila will be replacing its roof and associated insulation shortly. While the expense is substantial, there really is no choice as water damage from a leaky roof will irreparably damage our building. This makes it all the more important for us to have a successful Yom Kippur Appeal. Please do your part to the best of your ability.

We are looking forward to Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Succoth, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah, all during the month of October. I am so thankful to Dan Shaham, Pinchas Shabbat, Ephraim Back, Ellen Katz, Bill Brender, Shmuel Stern, Sharon McCord, Dan Korot and others who will be helping out with services. We also look forward to some snacking and socializing after Rosh Hashanah services and a break-fast after Yom Kippur Neila service at the synagogue. Thanks to all who will be helping with that and thanks to Elizabeth Fram, who saved money while fasting for the release of those held hostage in Gaza and who will be sponsoring our break-fast.

At this moment, Cher and I are still not sure about the exact timing of our travel plans during October and November as we are awaiting the birth of our first grandchildren, twin girls, anticipated soon. We hope to be of assistance to our daughter and son-in-law during a somewhat extended stay at their home in Los Angeles.

As I write this message, our new rabbinic intern, David Malamud is expected to make his first visit here during the weekend of September 20th. We look forward to meeting David, who will be making 10 visits during the course of the year. We are excited to play a role in his rabbinic preparation and to learn and experience Torah with him.

Shanah Tova to all!

Mark Hoffman

The Congregation Extends Its Sincere Sympathy To Their Families.

YOM KIPPUR APPEAL

We are currently in a time of reflection on our past lives, as well as hopes and prayers for the coming year. This year, I would ask you to reflect specifically on our congregation. What has it meant for you in the past, at the present time, and what potential does it hold for the future. Reflect on the loss you would feel if it was not here to be a center of Jewish life in the Greater Glens Falls region, providing an opportunity for personal and communal Jewish growth.

Every year our main fund raiser is the Yom Kippur Appeal. In the past, we have largely just asked for your generosity and hoped for the best. We have eliminated direct solicitation during Yom Kippur services. However, our income from this source has come up short in recent years.

This year we are setting a specific goal of $26,000 for the Yom Kippur appeal, which is an increase from what was donated last year. Our intention is to avoid having to withdraw principle from our endowment, as well as to avoid raising dues, which have been stable for many years, and which remain well below what is charged by comparable synagogues. By increasing your voluntary financial commitment to the congregation, you will insure our fiscal health, pay for vital spiritual and communal needs, and also do your part to insure that we avoid creating financial barriers to full participation in our Jewish community.

Please consider increasing your Yom Kippur Appeal pledge this year by whatever amount you can. If you have already sent your donation, please consider a supplemental donation. This is a chance to show your appreciation for all that Shaaray Tefila has meant to you and to express your hope for further enriching Jewish communal life in our region.

Shanah Tova.

Mark Hoffman

TO ALL THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF SHAARAY TEFILA

When you look into your heart as the New Year starts, may you discover a new sense of possibility, a new belief in the gift you have to share, a new connection to the people around you and a renewed commitment to your faith and your dreams. Everything wonderful and new... That's what you're being wished at this special time of year.

L'SHANAH TOVAH
Have a sweet year!

GREATER GLENS FALLS HEBREW SCHOOL

Shalom! At the time of publishing we will have been back in school for just a month. We were so excited to ramp up school year activities and welcome everyone back! Deby and Sharla are back to teach our oldest students and middle grade. We were so lucky to advance Sofia and Mattea Rice from teen aides to co-teachers for our little ones! In our first session, we reconnected with our peers and teachers, did team building activities, a Hebrew refresh and welcomed Mike Pletman back to do music and dancing with our students. Our teen aides are so motivated and excited to work hard on organizational projects, help our students and enjoy some much deserved social time with each other! As the semester progresses we will spend quality time immersing ourselves in this amazing holiday season for the Jewish people. Rosh Hashanah brings us a time of new beginnings and sweet times with our friends, family and Temple community! The semester ends with the miracle of Hanukkah as we light the candles, sing the classical tunes and eat our sizzling latkes! So much happens in between and here is a peek at some of the exciting activities to come during the first half of our year:

- Rosh Hashanah baking and apple dipping
- A Sukkot seder
- Hunger is Hard, Baking is easy Tikkun Olam School and Community event
- Mural painting in the Hebrew School hall with Phyllis Brown
- Our school team at the annual Latke Fest
- Hebrew School bake sale
- Sufganiyot making

All of these activities in addition to Hebrew, Torah stories, the history of Jewish immigration to America, and more will make our first semester filled with inspiration, imagination, interactive learning and a quest for more knowledge. Please reach out to me if you have any ideas for programs, have any questions or would like to donate to the Hebrew School program.

SELF-DEFENSE SEMINAR

Larry Waimon, World Karate Union Hall of Fame inductee as Law Enforcement Trainer of the Year in 2009 and retired New Jersey police officer, has offered to conduct a self-defense seminar at Congregation Shaaray Tefila. This introduction course exposes the participants to real life scenarios: how to notice an imminent threat and most assuredly, how to avoid a tragic outcome altogether. Much of the first hour engenders a new mind-set and awareness that should preclude such an unfortunate outcome. Most participants are astonished to realize how simple and how applicable such techniques are and how easy they are to incorporate.

Congregation Shaaray Tefila

68 Bay Street
Glens Falls, New York 12801
(518) 792-4945
cstgfny@gmail.com

Dear Friends and Members,

We no longer solicit donations during our service and would like the opportunity to read the donations received in memory of or in honor of friends and family prior to Yizkor.

Dues, fundraising and donations provide you with the services you have come to expect. This is your Synagogue and we ask everyone to make a meaningful donation to keep our programming going and our building open. A donation, of any size, is important as long as everyone participates.

Please fill out the below pledge form and send it in now so we can prepare the list for reading on Yom Kippur. Financial survival of Congregation Shaaray Tefila depends on all of us.

Larry Greenberg, Treasurer

YOM KIPPUR PLEDGE

Having sincerely considered the needs of our Congregation, and the services it provides for my family and my people:

I hereby pledge $_____ to support Congregation Shaaray Tefila and its programs.

Signed: _____

In Honor Of: _____

In Memory Of: _____

(Please return before the High Holy Days.)
