DECEMBER 2024

RABBINIC INTERN
DAVID MAGAZINE
MALAMUD

Hi all. I am so excited to be visiting the first weekend of December to join Shaaray Tefila in song and schmooze.

Even as I write this, during this month of Black Friday, the holiday season is already among us. Our Christian friends are dusting off their lights, setting up resplendent trees, and buying gifts for their loved ones. Meanwhile, we are anxiously awaiting Chanukkah, which coincidentally starts on the night of December 25th.

Why do we even celebrate Chanukkah? It's not in Tanach and the book of Maccabees is only preserved in the Greek Christian Bible. It's about the rededication of a building that no longer exists. In fact, some Jews stopped celebrating it all together!

מעשה וגזרו מענית בתנוכה בלוד, וירד רבי אליעזר ורס"ז,
רבי יהושע וסיפר. ואמרו להם: צאו והתענו על מה
שהתעניתם.

There was an incident and the Sages decreed a fast in Lod. Rabbi Eliezer descended and bathed and Rabbi Yehoshua cut his hair. They [Rabbi Eliezer and Rabbi Yehoshua] said to them [the Sages] go and fast for what you have fasted for. (Talmud Bavli, Rosh Hashanah 18b)

This situation is a little obtuse so let me fill in some gaps. Fasting is forbidden on Chanukkah. Not only did the rabbis of Lod stop celebrating Chanukkah but they also fasted, violating a rabbinic decree! Rabbi Eliezer and Rabbi Yehoshua are dissenting voices, they perform actions that show they did not accept the fast. Rabbis Eliezer and Yehoshua rebuke the rabbis of Lod and tell them to fast for their sin of fasting. It gets a little confusing here.

We all know who wins the debate. Despite the Temple being destroyed, we continue to celebrate Chanukkah. Why? Some rabbis suggest that there is the mitzvah of candle lighting, others say the miracle is too well known.

I want to offer a third option. I think we continue to celebrate because we are a people of hope. We long for the Messiah. We aspire to rebuild the Temple. Much like the oil, our hope continues to burn bright.

Despite centuries of violent oppression and trauma, the Jewish people continue to not only survive, but thrive. Chanukkah serves as a reminder, a symbol of our people's resilience.

My wish for you all this holiday season is that we may continue to cultivate hope. I am not saying that it is necessary to suppress sadness, to deny despair. Despair comes. It is a natural human emotion, especially as our days get shorter and darker. When you feel despair, remember that there is light in every darkness, it is possible to hope for a brighter future.

Rabbinic Intern David

PRESIDENT
MARK HOFFMAN

Thanks for all of the congratulations that Cher and I have received on the birth of our twin grandchildren.

During our trip, we had the opportunity to visit several congregations for Shabbat and holiday services, which were lovely. However, it's great to be back in our own community, where we are able to see friends at shul, in the park, at the supermarket, the library, etc.

Thanks to all who donated to the Yom Kippur appeal. We met our goal of $26,000, which will be crucial in meeting some additional expenses this year. Keep in mind that $26,000 was a goal and not a ceiling. We can certainly benefit from additional donations in order to remain fiscally healthy while meeting our financial obligations.

Please plan to attend our family service Friday evening, December 6 at 6:15 PM led by Rabbinic Intern David Malamud, followed by dairy potluck dinner. All ages are welcome.

On behalf of the Congregation, I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends of Claire Kantrowitz, a long-time member and friend of Shaaray Tefila.

Back in 2021, I wrote a couple of articles for the Times of Israel about my concerns with the national Conservative movement. For those who don't follow American Jewish religious movements, this has nothing to do with conservative politics but is the national Jewish religious group to which Shaaray Tefila belongs. Although we are really independent and quite pluralistic as a congregation, we are nevertheless affected by perceptions some have about the national movements. In particular, the Conservative movement has been trying to update its approach regarding interfaith families and is currently reaching out to congregations for their views. I would be interested in all your views. Here is a link if you would like to read my most recent update about this published in the Times of Israel.

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

December 2024 / Cheshvan-Kislev 5785

Judaism is a religion that makes time holy. We celebrate the passing of each day, each season and each occasion. As we say goodbye to all the fall holidays of Tishrei, we look forward to celebrating the winter Shabbats and holidays of Chanukah, Tu B'Shevat and Purim.

The annual Latke Fest will be held on Sunday, December 8th from 2-4:30 PM at Temple Beth El. It is a wonderful time to sample a variety of latkes and condiments and pick your choice for the winners. We will also be joining members of Temple Beth El to share a Tu B'Shevat seder in January, to celebrate the Birthdays of the Trees. Purim is one of my very favorites, when we hear the reading of the Megillah (Yes, the WHOLE Megillah), shake our groggers to wipe out the sound of the evil Haman's name and of course, eat lots of hamentashen!

Sisterhood hopes you will be able to join us in celebrating and making our holidays even more special. All are welcome to our Saturday morning services to share in beautiful prayers and interesting Torah studies. Also delicious Kiddushes!

Bonnie was glad to be able to visit Dolly Chary-Morrissey in October for her 89th birthday. Dolly had some falls prior to her visit and from her rehab was moved to assisted living. Her daughter Bunny, son Andy, granddaughter Jana & her husband Marshall and some friends helped pack & move as Dolly healed in rehab at Morse Life. Bonnie and Dolly's visit was brief this trip and Dolly & family donated many books to the library and Sisterhood's future fundraiser sales.

Sisterhood held a meeting on Sunday, October 27th to discuss ideas for future fundraisers and meetings. Some suggestions were a Fall Craft Fair, Art Auction, Book Discussion/Film Discussion group and possible guest speakers. We welcome all ideas and suggestions. Ellen treated us to a delicious & fun activity following the meeting which was making a variety of small chocolate lollipops and holiday (Thanksgiving & Chanukah) pieces. Bonnie gave hers to some children who loved the gifts. The October (27th) meeting was a great transition for us.

Healing thoughts and prayers to synagogue and temple members and friends. Refuah Shelaima, Get Well/Heal Quickly! Sadly, instead of healing prayers to Claire Kantrowitz, Congregation Shaaray Tefila and Sisterhood extend deepest sympathy to the Kantrowitz, Deihl, Winans, Green, Seaman, Ergle and Kaufman families. Hugs & love from Sisterhood & all to Claire Kantrowitz's family and friends. She was very active in Sisterhood, Bingo and our shul through the years. (Claire's obituary is available at sbfuneralhome.com.)

Thank you for your donation(s) in sponsoring an Oneg and/or Kiddush as well as volunteering your time to do what is needed (you know who you are) for Onegs, Kiddushes, Mourner's Meals, holidays, etc. for Sisterhood or for the synagogue. Thank you to the November sponsors: Laura & Elizabeth Fram, Nancy & Peter Kudan and Ronni Shelley, Ellen & Bruce Katz, Shaaray Tefila and Sisterhood, Lorraine & Dr. Syd Hochman, Judy Aronson and Bonnie & Barney Aaron Yanklowitz.

Due to the increasing cost of food, an increase of $10.00 (more or less) for each type of kiddush will start January 1, 2025. A list of the various types of kiddush menus will be available for your selections. Please call Katie for information.

Thank you for your Sisterhood dues and additional donations which are much appreciated. The extension date is December 20th for $36 dues.

Special December birthday or anniversary wishes to our Shul, Temple and Sisterhood members. Special Happy Birthday to Barbara Vengrove, Charlene Lebowitz (80th), Andrew Silver (55th) and Gerald Brezner (92nd). Mazel Tov to All!

Please support our gift shop for your various gift-giving or holiday needs. Contact Bonnie Yanklowitz at 518-222-5624 with any questions. Gift certificates for the gift shop or for Sisterhood Membership are available in the office.

Happy Holidays! Have a safe and healthy Thanksgiving and winter! Please keep our members and friends/families in New Jersey, the Carolinas, Florida and Israel/Middle East in your prayers too.
