FEBRUARY 2025

SHEVAT 5785

RABBINIC INTERN
DAVID MAGAZINE
MALAMUD

Hi all! I can't wait to visit you twice in the upcoming month, on the Shabbat starting on February 7 and February 28.

In this month, we celebrate Tu Bishvat, the new year for the trees. In college, my friend Nathan always had a new hobby. One year, after Sukkot, when everyone collects etrogim to make liquor or jams, Nathan collected over 300 etrogim to grow etrogs. We all doubted he could do it, but he turned his dorm closet into a grow room and by Tu Bishvat, he had an etrog for everyone at Hillel. I took three of those etrogim, and while two perished, one has survived for almost a decade. I pray often for this tree of mine, my most cherished house plant.

In an excerpt of a prayer for the trees, the 19th century Rabbi Yosef Hayyim poetically writes in the Leshon Hakhamim:

אָנאָ יְהוָה הוֹשִׁיעָה־נָּא הַיּוֹם הַזֶּה לְאֵילָן הוּא רֹאשׁ הַשָּׁנָה.

Lord, please save us on this day; for the trees is it the new year.

אָנאָ יְהוָה הַצְלִיחָה־נָּא הַיּוֹם הַזֶּה לְאֵילָן הוּא רֹאשׁ הַשָּׁנָה.

Lord, please grant us success on this day; for the trees is it the new year.

אָנאָ יְהוָה הַרְוִיחָה־נָּא הַיּוֹם הַזֶּה לְאֵילָן הוּא רֹאשׁ הַשָּׁנָה.

Lord, please grant us relief on this day; for the trees is it the new year.

אָנאָ יְהוָה הַטִּיבָה־נָּא הַיּוֹם הַזֶּה לְאֵילָן הוּא רֹאשׁ הַשָּׁנָה.

Lord, please grant us goodness on this day; for the trees is it the new year.

This prayer improvises on the climatic prayer of Hallel, our ritualized recitation of certain Psalms reserved for major holidays. Tu Bishvat is not one of these holidays. While Tu Bishvat makes sense in, ארץ ישראל, the land of Israel, the timing does not make any sense in a North American climate. Tu Bishvat is less than a month away and today I played with my dog and kids in our biggest snowstorm of the season. And yet, something about this timing makes sense to me.

Like Rosh Hodesh, the new month does not start at the fullness of the moon, but rather at its absence. So too, in Boston and certainly in Glens Falls, the new year of the trees does not start in the warmth of spring or the flowering of summer, but in the cold of winter. At the moment of the moon's darkness and the year's frigidity, we need the promise of rebirth and renewal more than anything.

And Rabbi Yosef Hayyim's prayer speaks to this aspiration for renewal. We pray for this renewal to come to us.

There were times that I thought my etrog was a goner. She battled several rounds of spider mites. She began to flower a couple years ago and then lost all of her buds and leaves. I watered an empty pot for months and, lo and behold, it sprung back to life. My etrog is now a couple feet tall again and shooting off new growth left and right.

The trees have a strength, a wisdom, a resilience. My prayer for us is that in the dead of winter, we can embrace Tu Bishvat's promise of renewal. Like my etrog, we may feel defeated, beaten down. May we be like the trees, with deep roots, that can weather any storm, grow from our mistakes and blossom.

Rabbinic Intern David

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

Thanks to all of those who share Shabbat with us at Shaaray Tefila each week. Although we have fewer holidays to celebrate in January and February, the regular rhythm of weekly prayer, song, conversation, learning and food continues to animate us during the cold winter months. In February, we will have two visits from our rabbinic intern, David Malamud during the weekends of February 7 and February 28. The former will also coincide with a family service at Beth El.

Tu B'Shevat, our new year for the trees will be this February 13. As the holiday has become associated with the environmental movement, I would love to spend it together on an easy guided hike at Wilton Nature Preserve that day at 10 AM. Please contact me or the office as soon as possible so we can let the preserve know how many are coming.

Our volunteers make the operation of Shaaray Tefila possible. Special thanks to Larry Greenberg for making sure that our building is well-maintained, safe and comfortable. If you have some time to volunteer with our building committee or for any other synagogue function, it would be enormously appreciated.

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

February 2025 / Shevat 5785

Shalom from the cold, snowy North Country.

While we are dealing with the challenges of winter, our friends and family in Israel are getting ready to celebrate Tu B'Shevat, the New Year of the Trees. On the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat, on the night of the full moon, we celebrate the New Year for the tithing of the fruit of the trees. Trees must be three years old or older before we can take their fruit but how do we determine a tree's age without cutting it down and counting their rings? The rabbis came up with a practical solution, picking the 15th of Shevat to be the birthday of all trees.

Tu B'Shevat marks the season in which the earliest -blooming trees in the Land of Israel emerge from their winter sleep and begin a new fruit-bearing cycle. While we in Northeast New York State are shoveling white snow, in Israel they are admiring the fragrant white blossoms of the almond trees. It is a time of anticipation for the springtime soon arriving.

In the 16th century, the Kabbalists of Tzfat compiled a Tu B'Shvat seder, somewhat similar to the seder for Passover. It involves enjoying the seven species native to the Land of Israel; figs, dates, pomegranates, olives, grapes (or raisins), honey, wheat and barley (in the form of bread, cake or cereal). We eat various nuts with shells (walnuts, almonds, pistachios, coconut) and fruits with peels (oranges, pomegranates, avocado). We also eat fruits with edible seeds (blueberries) and other fruits with inedible pits (peaches, plums). We drink four glasses of wine or grape juice (white, blush, pink and red). The First Cup is pure white, the Second Cup is pale pink (white with a drop of red wine), the Third Cup is darker pink (with more red added) and the Fourth Cup is almost totally red (with only a drop of white).

The seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to enjoy the company of our friends. It's a time for introspection and spiritual growth. It's a time to appreciate the many gifts we receive from our trees such as fruits, lumber, shelter, shade and the very air we breathe. Sisterhood hopes you will be able to join members of Temple Beth El at the temple to share a Tu B'Shevat Seder on Thursday, February 13th at 6:15 pm, to celebrate the New Year of the Trees. Your participation makes the celebration of our holidays even more special.

All are welcome to our Saturday morning services to share in beautiful prayers and interesting Torah studies. Also delicious Kiddushes! Our Rabbinic Intern David Malamud will be conducting Shabbat services on some Friday nights and Saturday mornings each month. Please try to attend and show him our support on the weekend of February 7 and February 28.

Sisterhood greatly appreciates the many generous people who sponsor a kiddush. Thank you for your donation(s) to sponsor an Oneg and/or Kiddush (also extra foods/beverages) as well as volunteering your time to do what is needed (you know who you are) for Onegs, Kiddushes, Mourner's Meals and holidays for Sisterhood and for the synagogue. A special thank you to Joe Hoffman, who prepares many special Shabbat kiddushes and incredibly delicious cakes and cookies to make our Shabbats even more enjoyable. Joe, we are very grateful to you. Many thanks to the January sponsors: Bonnie Yanklowitz, anonymous, Sisterhood and Francine Torra.

Thank you again for your Sisterhood dues and additional donations which are much needed and appreciated. Please support our gift shop for your various gift-giving or holiday needs. Contact Bonnie Yanklowitz at 518-222-5624 with any questions. Gift certificates for the gift shop or for Sisterhood Membership are available in the office.

Mazel Tov to Faye Landsman on the marriage of her daughter Lauren Alexis Calihman to Rafael Andre Anatole Gantard on January 5th.

Mazel Tov to Clara Rudnick who became a great-grandmother on January 8th. Congratulations to grandparents, Marvin Rudnick & Kathryn Harris and proud parents (Clara's granddaughter) Virginia & Mark Balch on the birth of their son, Beau.

Special February birthday and anniversary wishes to our Shul, Temple and Sisterhood members. Happy Birthday to Monica Guglielmo (55) and John Guglielmo (60). Happy 45th Anniversary to Lorraine & Syd Hochman! Mazel Tov! Thank you for continuing to assist and contribute to synagogue services and Sisterhood events and needs.

Please let me know if you will be able to volunteer to assist with an enjoyable Purim project late February/early March. More information will be emailed in February.

Please keep our members, friends & families in your prayers. We pray for Safety, Peace, Strength and Good Health! Healing thoughts and prayers to synagogue, temple members and friends. Refuah Shelaima, Get Well/Heal Quickly!

We hold close to our hearts and send prayers and thoughts to all in California who are suffering or were affected in any way by the terrible fires destroying lives, properties and dreams. We send our unwavering support to all the frontline workers who are working so hard to battle this terrible conflagration. We pray that the fires will soon be under control and that people will begin to recover and rebuild.

We continue to pray for the release of all the hostages and for a permanent peace accord for our beloved State of Israel.

Stay safe and healthy during the frigid February weather. Shalom!

Ellen Katz, Sisterhood President

WEDDING CELEBRATIONS

With last year's wedding celebration, a wonderful nachas for our shul, Sisterhood would like to share past wedding photos of members and friends.

SUNNY & PAUL BUCHMAN

On January 26, 1958 Sunny Aronson, daughter of William & Clara Aronson and Paul Buchman, of Albany, son of Samuel & Dorothy Buchman were married.

They met on a blind date arranged by Paul's mother and Sunny's cousin, Grace Snyder Schaeffer (originally of Glens Falls). That was in October of 1957. In December they became engaged and were married in January.

For the first five years of marriage Sunny & Paul lived in Auburn, New York and then moved to Glens Falls, Sunny's hometown.

Both of Sunny's parents, the Aronson family and the Yanklowitz family trace back to the early 1900's in Glens Falls and Congregation Shaaray Tefila.

Starting with her great-grandfather, Benjamin Aronson, who was head of the Chevra Kadisha, the synagogue has been a focal point for the Aronson family. Sunny & Paul continued the family tradition of participation and leadership in synagogue life.

LORRAINE & SYD HOCHMAN

On February 24, 1980, Lorraine Rosenberg, daughter of Jean & Irving Rosenberg, married Sydney Hochman, son of Arline & Benny Hochman at Manhattan Beach Jewish Center.

They met at a Young Adult Encounter Group and were married within a year.

They lived in Brooklyn for less than a year before discovering Glens Falls, NY.
