Hodesh Nisan Tov and an early Hag Sameach!

I hope we are all staying warm in our slow march to spring. I look forward to seeing you all on the Shabbat preceding the first days of Passover and for the first days of Passover. My kids, Ari and Ben, and my wife, Rebecca, will be joining me on this longer stay. I'm so excited to introduce them to our community.

Now that Purim is past us, I'm sure many of us have already moved onto preparing for Passover. I want to address the elephant in the room. Passover can be a very stressful holiday. Whether you are meticulously cleaning the house of hametz, crafting the best menu for Seder, picking out a new Haggadah (reach out for suggestions!), or planning travel to friends and family, we toil over this holiday which commemorates our liberation from Egyptian slavery.

At its core, technically, Passover symbolizes the transference of Am Yisrael from Egyptian servitude to divine Servitude. And yet, our haggadot speak of Herut, freedom. In the Haggadah, the Ha Lachma Anya, "This is the bread of affliction," concludes הַשָּׂמַיְמָה עָבָדִי, לְשָׁנָה הַבָּאָה בְּנֵי חוֹרִין.

This year we are slaves, next year we will be free.

Wait a minute, I thought the Haggadah talks about freedom? Or, aren't we forever under the yoke of Heaven? I think Ha Lachma Anya summarizes the Haggadah's and the rabbis approach to this question. The rabbis, born out of sectarian division during a time of hyper-partisanship, recognized that This World, Olam Hazeh, is not a world of freedom. Sound familiar?

The rabbis recognize that while we are free from Egyptian bondage, we are not free from the demands of our world. The rabbis dreamed of Olam Haba, the World to Come, that would be like a second Eden. This is what the rabbis have in mind when they say "we will be free."

So, does G-d free us from Olam Hazeh as he freed us from Egyptian bondage? I'd argue no. Today, I had the pleasure of hoping on Zoom and witnessing a Brit Bat for a baby girl. The mother shared in her remarks a Kabbalistic notion, hitorrerut shel matta and hitorrerut shel maala. In response to Hester Panim, G-d hiding his face, a concept I wrote about last month, the Kabbalists argued that G-d is only aroused to action by the actions of humanity, not vice versa. So, nu, how do we inspire G-d to free us once and for all and bring us to Olam Haba.

Rav Kook, the first Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi of Jerusalem and the founder of religious Zionism connects the symbols of Passover: freedom and biur hametz, the burning away of hametz before the holiday. Kook argues that freedom only comes through biur hametz, "excision of anything and everything that delays liberation from our midst. This is the 'leaven in the dough' whose damage is particularly felt at the time when the light of geula/ liberation is shining upon us."

Now I'm not saying that literal biur hametz isn't valuable. I know that I personally need the Jewish calendar to force me to do spring cleaning. However, when these rituals and holidays become a form of enslavement, we have lost the meaning of the holiday. I invite you to take a step back. Take a breath. Focus on your connections to family, to the tradition. This is what Passover is about.

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends of Sharon Aronson on her recent passing. May her memory be for a blessing.

Thanks to Sisterhood and to all those who prepared Mishloach Manot boxes for Purim, as well as to Jewish Federation of Northeastern NY for funding this activity.

Please join us on Friday April 11 at 6:15 PM for a pre-Passover combined family service with Temple Beth El at Shaaray Tefila. Rabbinic intern David Malamud will help lead the service.

Time is approaching for our Passover celebrations and services.

Reservations for the second night communal seder on Sunday, April 13 must be made with Katie in the office or with myself by Friday April 4. Food will be provided by Kosher 518. David Malamud will lead the seder. Thanks again to Jewish Federation for helping to subsidize the event, along with Shaaray Tefila. Their funding allows us to keep the cost reasonable. We also welcome your donations to ensure that cost is not a factor in attendance for anyone in the Jewish community. This fun and meaningful Jewish activity at Shaaray Tefila helps build community and shape Jewish lives here in the north country. We will also be having services at the synagogue on Sunday morning, April 13 and Monday morning, April 14.

Mark Hoffman

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

April 2025 / Nisan - Iyar 5785

Shalom from your friends in the North Country. After a long, icy Winter we can finally say goodbye to Winter and hello to Spring! April showers bring May flowers and Spring!

Purim was lots of fun and shared with our friends from Shaara Tefila in Saratoga and Temple Beth El in Glens Falls. A huge thank you to all our volunteers who helped to prepare and deliver Shaloch Manot gift boxes this year. Thank you to the Jewish Federation of Northeastern New York and the Theodore Strauss Fund, who provided us with a grant for members 65 years old and better of both Shaaray Tefila and Temple Beth El, to receive the Shaloch Manot gift boxes.

The Hebrew month of Nisan also heralds the start of Spring. Nisan is the first month on the Hebrew calendar and the 15th of Nisan begins another favorite holiday, Passover. This year we will be sharing the second seder at Congregation Shaaray Tefila on Sunday, April 13th at 6PM. Please join us this year for a festive meal (new caterer), meaningful service, lots of singing and reading, tons of matzah and most importantly, remembering our freedom from slavery. Our Rabbinic Intern David Malamud will be leading our seder and plans on bringing his beautiful family to share our Passover. Looking forward to meeting Mrs. Malamud and his twin sons!

All are welcome to our weekly Saturday morning services to share in beautiful prayers and interesting Torah studies. Also delicious Kiddushes! We continue to enjoy Saturday morning services, with a wonderful kiddush luncheon afterwards. Our Rabbinic Intern David Malamud will be here the weekend of April 11. Please join us and show him our support.

Sisterhood greatly appreciates the many generous people who sponsor an oneg or kiddush. Thank you for sponsoring and donating extra foods/beverages as well as volunteering your time to do what is needed (you know who you are) for Onegs, Kiddushes, Mourner's Meals and holidays for Sisterhood and for the synagogue. A special thank you to Joe Hoffman who prepares our special Shabbat kiddushes.

Many thanks to the March sponsors: Cher Hoffman, Elizabeth Fram, Sunny Buchman and Roz Winston, who made our Shabbat more special.

Thank you again for your Sisterhood donations, which are always appreciated. Please support our gift shop for your various gift-giving or holiday needs. We have several Passover items to make your seder table shine! Contact Bonnie Yanklowitz at 518-222-5624 with any questions. Gift certificates for the gift shop or for Sisterhood Membership are available in the office.

Special April birthday and anniversary wishes to our Shul, Temple and Sisterhood members. Mazel Tov to Lana Studley (50), Jeffrey Schwartz (65), Charles Vengrove (95) and Terry Gottesman (75).

Please keep our members, friends & families in your prayers. We pray for Safety, Peace, Strength and Good Health! Healing thoughts and prayers to synagogue, temple members and friends. Refuah Shelaima, Get Well/Heal Quickly!

We continue to pray for the release of all the hostages and for a permanent peace accord for our beloved State of Israel.

Stay safe and healthy!

GREATER GLENS FALLS HEBREW SCHOOL

We have had a wonderful past few months at the Greater Glens Falls Hebrew School! We started out the year with our annual participation at the Martin Luther King Jr commemoration with the local community at the Christ Methodist Church.

Our children and Temple choir sang healing and peaceful songs and expressed our vision of Tikkun Olam, the Hebrew Phrase for healing the world. We did this by showcasing the Tikkun Olam mural we painted with the amazing local artist and Temple member, Phyllis Brown who designed the mural.

As always, we have focused on every Jewish holiday such as celebrating the earth and the trees during Tu B'Shevat. We had a combination of a traditional Tu B'Shevat ritual item seder with berries, grapes and apples as well as an ice cream seder. Each ice cream flavor symbolized the seasons that we look forward to each year. During project based learning, we continued learning about the importance of the tallit, our beloved Jewish prayer shawls. Special guest and tallit weaver Adina Daar visited us to show us how she uses a loom to create a tallit, the beautiful materials that she uses as well as showcasing some of her past work. We had an amazing Temple Purim celebration with participation from Hebrew School students with some very creative costumes! The hamantaschen for that night were made by our Hebrew School students with teacher Sharla leading the charge. We look forward to a productive few months ahead with our annual chocolate seder in preparation for Passover, as well as our continued focus on Hebrew and Judaic Studies. We will focus on Holocaust education as well as a having a Yom Ha'atzmaut celebration for Israeli Independence day. We will end our year with a Hebrew School family service to honor our students and teachers and a Hebrew School picnic at Crandall park to celebrate our accomplishments.

Please reach out with any ideas, questions or just to say hello! Our Hebrew School is so appreciative of the support we receive from the entire Jewish community.

L'Shalom,

Rebecca Charhon

99-YEAR-OLD HUDSON FALLS NATIVE REMEMBERS CONGREGATION SHAARAY TEFILA IN THE 1930S

By Dave Nathan

It's not true that Marian Frost Sussna was born the year Edison invented the light bulb.

It was not until October, 1925 that Mrs. Sussna, who now lives in Manhattan, was born in Hudson Falls.

Mrs. Sussna, now widowed, probably is the oldest living graduate of the Congregation Shaaray Tefila's once active teen girls sorority.

We had several long conversations recently with the energetic Mrs. Sussna, and she reflected on her long ago days growing up in Hudson Falls and attending Congregation Shaaray Tefila.

Q-You were brought up in Hudson Falls? Tell us about your family.

A- I was born in 1925 in Hudson Falls and was the youngest of 5. I am the only one alive now. My dad owned a store in Hudson Falls called Frost Department Store for 35 years and it probably would have been longer, but he passed away at only 56.

Q - Were there other Jewish families in Hudson Falls that you would interact with, or were your Jewish connections mainly in Glens Falls?

A- Other than my siblings, I was the only Jewish student in school until the end, when a couple of Jewish doctors moved in with very small children. The Jewish kids I knew were mainly in the Shaaray Tefila sorority. My folks were somewhat observant and kept a Kosher home. They went to Shul for the High Holy Days and my mom lit candles on Friday night, but I do not recall religion ever being a topic of conversation.

Q-It is long ago now, but, as you remember, were there good relations between Jews and Christians in Glens Falls in those days?

A- As I mentioned, all my friends growing up in Hudson Falls were not Jewish, and I only remember one antisemitic remark that was a bit annoying. The boy involved did not finish high school so he probably did not know any better. And, on the plus side, the Catholic priest in Hudson Falls said prayers in his church in honor of my father.

Q-What can you tell us about congregation life as you knew it growing up? Services? Other Congregation families?

A-My parents Morris and Celia Frost belonged to the shul for many years and I and other members of my family went to services there. It was a long time ago (1930s), but I do remember a few things. We would go to the High Holy Day Services, but young people couldn't sit still that long so we kids would go out on the porch for stretches of time and talk. In those days coming from Hudson Falls, our family once or twice stayed overnight at a rooming house near the synagogue at Yom Kippur. The sorority was for teens and a few post high school kids were involved with the activities which were all at the synagogue. Probably 10-15 girls were involved at any one time. I do remember one embarrassing moment – at an initiation ceremony for the sorority, we were all supposed to sing “God Bless America” and everything went fine, but one girl could not carry a tune and had to sing it more than once to get it right. She had guts to do it over in front of the others. One other moment stands out: when I was much, much younger at Yom Kippur services with my parents, I remember running down the aisle at the services amusing people with a chicken leg.

Q-When did you leave Glens Falls and where did you go?

A-I left Hudson Falls in 1943 after high school, went to Ohio State for a year, then transferred and finished at SUNY in Albany. I later got an MA at Columbia Teachers College and taught at NYC Community College in Brooklyn Heights.

Q-Can you tell us about your husband, your children?

A-I met my husband, Steve Sussna, at the Community College, where he was teaching while going to Fordham Law School at night. I taught high school math for many years, and Steve was a city planning and zoning consultant. In his last career, he was a full professor in the Baruch College law department in New York. We were married for 59 years when he passed away at 89. We have two children, Alan, now in Arizona, and Amy, outside of Chicago. We have been blessed with four beautiful and well-educated grandchildren.

Q- Where did you live most of the time after Glens Falls?

A-We lived most of our married life in Lawrenceville, New Jersey and belonged to Princeton Jewish Center, where Alan had his Bar Mitzvah, and later Brothers of Israel in Trenton, NJ., where Amy had her Bat Mitzvah and then became confirmed. In 2000, Steve and I retired to New York City, where I still live.

Q-What activities – including religious ones – do you pursue now?

A-My friends and I try to get together for a few holidays each year at someone's home and we order in a traditional holiday meal.

Editor's Notes:

--Mrs. Sussna's nephew is weekly Chronicle founder-editor Mark Frost.

--Dave Nathan is a Glens Falls native now living in the Washington, DC area. His father, Sam Nathan, was a member of the Congregation in the 1930s and 1940s.
