DAVID MAGAZINE
MALAMUD

Hag Sameach!

I hope you all are enjoying a raucous Shavuot in Glens Falls. I am bittersweetly looking forward to my final visit on June 18-20th. It feels like I have finally gotten to know so many of you and now it is time for goodbye. For the upcoming year, I have accepted two internships, one in Medford, MA and one in Peabody, MA, both of which are much closer. I would have loved to spend another year with you all deepening our relationship, but as my children get older (two in July!), I am realizing the importance of savoring every moment with them.

Shavuot is, זמן מתן תורתנו, a time celebrating the receiving of the Torah in one transformative moment. It is easy to get swept up in grand moments of change and upheaval, but I want to talk a different kind of revelation.

Martin Buber, a late 19th and early 20th century German Jew, distinctly conceives of two kinds of revelation, the theophany (display of God, i.e. revelation) at Sinai and the theophany of exile. What is the theophany of exile? I am so glad you asked. In the 1913 preface to his book, On Judaism, Buber writes: “in that theophany, revelation does not flash from the cloud, but from the lowly things themselves; it whispers to us in the course of every ordinary day, and it is alive quite near us, quite close; the shekhina dwells about us, sharing our exile and our wait, and our suffering heals and is hallowed through the immanence of the Word” (6).

I first encountered this text at BU, where I was a PhD student in Religion before rabbinical school. I dug up this quote from an old exam I submitted comparing and contrasting different Jewish philosophers’ interpretation of revelation, but I don’t think I actually understood it. I was just answering an exam. But now I think I have an idea of this.

In our past year together, I have witnessed the theophany of exile countless times, when we sing during psukei dezimra, when we have lively Torah discussions, and when we laugh during Kiddush. I think it is easy to take these moments for granted. But these moments, these bits of pottery, have made up a brilliant mosaic, this internship. I have learned so much from all of you and I will miss you dearly.

I want to challenge you all, in our final month together, to make the most out of it. Not just my visit, though I look forward to schmoozing with all of you. No, I challenge you all to be more mindful. If you pay attention, you might just see the shekhina waiting for you. You don’t need to wait for Shavuot or even a Shabbat. There are moments of divinity all around us waiting to be seen.

Rabbinic Intern David

PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

We look forward to Shavuot with services on Tuesday, June 3 with Yizkor. The following Friday we will have a combined family service at Beth El. Please also note that David Malamud’s last weekend with us will be June 20-22. We will be honoring David with a special kiddish Saturday, June 21. That evening, we will also enjoy a hike and havdala with Beth El at Crandall Park. We wish David well in his last year in the seminary.

I am considering starting a beginning Hebrew class sometime in early summer. These classes are usually a fun way to learn the language of the Bible and Jewish liturgy, while also digressing into subjects of general Jewish interest. Please let me know if you are interested and when a good time would be for you.

We wish Judy Korot a full recovery from her recent sudden illness and look forward to seeing her back in shul. We also welcome Sunny Buchman back from Israel and congratulate her on her 90th birthday.

I hope you all have a wonderful summer in beautiful Upstate NY or wherever your travels take you.

Mark Hoffman

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

June 2025 / Sivan - Tammuz 5785

Shalom from your friends in the North Country.

June brings the joyful holiday of Shavuot and finally the arrival of Spring in all its beautiful glory! On Shavuot we celebrate the giving of the Torah. Shavuot is also known as the Festival of Weeks and the Festival of the Harvest, as it occurs seven weeks after Passover. We “Count the Omer”, the 49 days from the second day of Passover until Shavuot, and consider it a time for personal reflection and growth. An omer is a dry measure of grain that was brought to the Great Temple as a sacrifice in biblical times. Since we can no longer offer a sacrifice of wheat or barley in the Great Temple, we sacrifice our prayers and intentions to be better people by counting the days until we celebrate Shavuot. Shavuot services will be held on Tuesday, June 3 at 9:30 AM. Yizkor will be recited on Tuesday morning. Please join us to celebrate the gift of the Torah and share in a traditional dairy kiddush of blintzes, cheeses, bagels and lox, salads, cheesecake and ice cream. We eat dairy because the Torah is compared to milk and honey, emphasizing its sweetness and nourishing nature.

Rabbinic Intern David Malamud will be conducting Shabbat services on Friday, June 20th at 6:30 PM and Saturday, June 21st at 9:30 AM. Please join us for services to show our support for him and our congregation. Also on Saturday, June 21st, at 7:00 PM, members of Congregation Shaaray Tefila and Temple Beth El will meet at the Crandall Park Monument to go on a short, easy hike and then have a Havdalah service. This is a fun opportunity to combine the physical with the spiritual!

We welcome both members and non-members to our weekly Saturday morning Shabbat services to share in beautiful prayers and interesting Torah study. Please consider coming at least once a month to help make the minyan? You will also enjoy a delicious Kiddush! Sisterhood wants to thank the many generous people who sponsor an Oneg or Kiddush for the Congregation. We thank you for volunteering your time and donating extra food and beverages. We also want to thank the volunteers (you all know who you are) who always provide tremendous assistance to Sisterhood and the Synagogue by helping with all the Onegs, Kiddushim, Holiday Meals and Mourner's Meals. A special thank you to Joe Hoffman, who prepares our delicious Shabbat Kiddushim.

Many thanks to the May sponsors who made our Shabbat even more special: Laura Fram, Sisterhood, anonymous sponsor, Sisterhood, Bonnie Yanklowitz, Sue & David Matzner, Judy & Allan Korot, and Barbara & Barry Ziff. Thank you again for your Sisterhood donations, which are always appreciated.

Please support our gift shop for your various gift-giving or holiday needs. We have many lovely pieces of Judaica jewelry and holiday items for sale. Contact Bonnie Yanklowitz at 518-222-5624 with any questions. Gift certificates for the gift shop or for Sisterhood Membership are available in the office.

Special June birthday and anniversary wishes to our Shul, Temple and Sisterhood members. Mazel Tov to Clara Rudnick (101), Arnold Pine (99), and Martin Ashendorff (80).

Please keep our members, friends & families in your prayers. We pray for Safety, Peace, Strength and Good Health! Healing thoughts and prayers to synagogue, temple members and friends. Refuah Shelaima, Get Well/Heal Quickly!

We continue to pray for the release of all the hostages and for a permanent peace accord for our beloved State of Israel.

Stay safe and healthy!

Shalom!

Ellen Katz, Sisterhood President
