PRESIDENT MARK HOFFMAN

I would like to express my condolences to Ed Greenberg, his family and friends on the passing of Ed's father Morton. May his memory be for a blessing.

A number of you have expressed an interest in leading shabbat services. Some of you have already volunteered to lead Musaf, either individually or with others. For those of you who think you could benefit from some coaching, I am happy to hold some educational sessions about the Shabbat service, both regarding the mechanics and the underlying themes. I have not set a schedule for these classes yet, as I am not sure when people will be available. Please contact me.

Our shabbat experience could also benefit from the perspectives of additional congregants who would be willing to lead our shabbat Torah discussion. You do not have to be a Torah scholar nor fluent in Hebrew to lead such discussions. All it takes is a willingness to follow your curiosity regarding the weekly reading. I can provide some tips about this too. Please contact me.

Mark Hoffman

In Judaism, the age of a tree is important in determining whether you can eat the fruit from it. The fruit from a tree cannot be eaten for the first three years and the fourth year's fruit is sacrificed to G-d. After the fourth year, you can eat the fruit from a tree. Tu BiShvat is the day that each tree ages a year for the purposes of determining if one can eat from it, a Birthday for the Trees!

In Israel, the almond trees are beginning to bloom with fragrant, white blossoms. We celebrate all our trees, with their many gifts to us. We thank them for the oxygen we breathe, their fruits, flowers, shade, lumber and especially their beauty. We celebrate with a special Tu B'Shevat seder, sampling different species of fruit and grains. A Tu B'Shevat seder is a festive, Kabbalistic-inspired ritual meal celebrating the "New Year of the Trees," similar to a Passover seder. We focus on fruits, nature and spiritual connection, involving four cups of wine or grape juice (white to red) and specific fruit categories (hard shell/soft inside, edible outside/inedible pit, fully edible) to symbolize spiritual growth and tikkun olam (repairing the world). It's a time for reflection on our relationship with the environment and Israel, with readings, blessings, and symbolic foods. Please plan to join members of Temple Beth El at the temple to share a Tu B'Shevat Seder on Sunday, February 1st at 6pm, to celebrate the New Year of the Trees.

We celebrate Shabbat every week with Saturday morning services, sharing beautiful prayers and interesting Torah study. We welcome both members and non-members to our weekly services. Please consider coming at least once a month to help make

SISTERHOOD GREETINGS & NEWS

February 2026 / Shevat-Adar 5786

Shalom from your friends in the North Country.

The months of Shevat and Adar are joyful reminders that Spring is on the way! We celebrate the New Year of the Trees on the 15th day of the month of Shevat, Tu B'Shevat.

the minyan? You will also enjoy a delicious Kiddush! We celebrate birthdays and anniversaries each month with a special cake baked by our own Master Baker Joe Hoffman. Please come on down to share your simcha during your special month and consider sponsoring a kiddush for the occasion?

Sisterhood wants to thank the many generous people who sponsor an Oneg or Kiddush for the Congregation. We offer different selections of meals of varying affordable cost. We thank you for volunteering your time and donating extra food and beverages. We also want to thank the volunteers (you all know who you are) who always provide tremendous assistance to Sisterhood and the Synagogue by helping with all the Onegs, Kiddushim, Holiday Meals and Mourner's Meals. A special thank you to Joe Hoffman, who prepares our delicious Shabbat Kiddushim, along with Cher Hoffman, Francine Torra, Lorrie Seabury and Bonnie Yanklowitz.

Many thanks to the January sponsors who made our Shabbats even more special: Sisterhood, Pat Balasuriya, Ron Schmidt, Vivian Greenberg, Sarah Fiedler, Ed Greenberg & Cynthia Cutler, Nancy & Peter Kudan, and Ronni Shelley. Thank you again for your Sisterhood donations, which are always appreciated.

Our next Sisterhood meeting will be on Sunday, February 8th at 3pm. We will be discussing plans for Purim next month and for an Arts & Craft Fair this year. We also would like to start a group to learn how to lead different parts of the Shabbat service. Please join us to help with the planning and the implementation of our plans?

Special February birthday wishes to Nancy Goldstein, Joe Hoffman, Mark Hoffman, and Francine Torra! Mazel Tov to Lorraine & Syd Hochman on their 46th wedding anniversary!

Please support our gift shop for your various gift-giving or holiday needs. We have many lovely pieces of Judaica jewelry and holiday items for sale. Contact Bonnie Yanklowitz at 518-222-5624 with any questions. Gift certificates for the gift shop or for Sisterhood Membership are available in the office.

Please keep our members, friends & families in your prayers. We pray for Safety, Peace, Strength and Good Health! Healing thoughts and prayers to synagogue, temple members and friends. Refuah Shelaima, Get Well/Heal Quickly! We pray for the physical and spiritual recovery of all the hostages and for the safety and security of our Israeli brothers and sisters. We continue to pray for a permanent peace accord for our beloved State of Israel.

Stay safe and healthy!

Shalom!

Ellen Katz
Sisterhood President

THE FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS: SYMBOL OF RESISTANCE TO TYRANNY

As published in the January 2026 issue of The Lake George Mirror by Susan Harris

“Who Can Retell” is a Hanukkah ballad of Jewish resilience. It begins: “Who can retell the things that befell us / Who can count them? / In every age a hero or sage / Came to our aid.” The unnamed hero: Judah Maccabee.

In Glens Falls, at Congregation Shaaray Tefila’s December 20th Hanukkah bash, a 6-piece Adirondack Klezmer Band played the ballad. Partygoers sang along. Hanukkah commemorates the triumph of the Maccabees, a small band of religious zealots who refused to assimilate, and asserted, once again in history, the right of the Jewish people to follow their faith.

The Maccabees’ victory of great odds is symbolized by Menorah (candelabra) lighting in homes, synagogues, and public places all over the world. “The Festival of Lights,” as Hanukkah is known, celebrates the victory of light over darkness.

But more than two millennia after the Maccabean victory, the struggle for tolerance and acceptance is still aspirational. A few weeks ago, at an outdoor celebration on Bondi Beach in Australia, a community Hannukah party was brought to a deadly end by antisemitic fanatics.

Lorraine Hochman of Congregation Shaaray Tefila says, “Terrible things like Bondi Beach bring people out. We’re Jews. We rise to the occasion—we don’t cower.” Still, they are frustrated at having to provide security guards for the safety of congregation and guests. Precautions are observed by synagogues around the world, even as they proclaim openness and accessibility to all.

Says Mark Hoffman, President of Congregation Shaaray Tefila, “We’re an open and participatory congregation. Pluralistic. We welcome you, in whatever ways you’re interested—Hanukkah party, discussions, Saturday morning services, Sisterhood. We try to be as musical as we can, because music uplifts people’s spirits.” Shaaray Tefila offers the opportunity of extended family, a sense of community. Mark continues, “After every Saturday service, we have lunch—hummus, herring, salad, fruits. My son bakes delicious cookies.”

Hanukkah combines history with fun. Shaaray Tefila’s extensive buffet featured latkes (potato pancakes) with applesauce or sour cream, and jelly donuts. And what’s a holiday party without kosher pizza? Hanukkah “gelt” (chocolate coins wrapped in gold foil) and “dreidels” (plastic tops that you spin to win) were everywhere. The night felt rich in camaraderie.

The dreidel game which was played, has a sneaky, if somewhat humorous backstory. In Maccabean times, since Jews were prohibited from studying Torah, they did it on the sly. If the enemy became suspicious, the scholars quickly plunked down a bunch of dreidels and began gambling. They were left to their own devices.

It’s special that Glens Falls is home to the only two synagogues in Warren County. A few blocks from each other, the Conservative Congregation Shaaray Tefila is on Bay Street; the Reform Temple Beth El is on Marion Avenue. Why Glens Falls? The city was easily accessible by river, rail, and road in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, when Eastern European Jews, who came here to escape religious persecution, made their way from Ellis Island. They formed a critical mass who found work, and helped build the arts, culture, and religious community. At its height, Shaaray Tefila had 150 families, with over 100 children and young adults in their schools and youth programs.

Today both Shaaray Tefila and Beth El invite those who are curious about Judaism to visit them: "Traditional Jews, interfaith and non-traditional Jewish families, college students from SUNY Adirondack, and singles in Glens Falls and neighboring communities." Says Kim Butler, 6-year-old twins in tow, "There are some unaffiliated Jews in Lake George and Bolton Landing. Please come join us." Ellen Katz, current Sisterhood President, has an inviting initiative: a fall arts and crafts fair. "We have an artistic congregation. We'll ask the greater Glens Falls community to join in." Also in the spirit of outreach, Bonnie Yanklowitz, past President of Sisterhood says, "During my tenure, Shaaray Tefila delivered Purim baskets filled with goodies, from Saratoga to Warrensburg." It's always an unexpected surprise to receive one.

Purim arrives March 2nd this year, with carnival, costumes, hamentashen, and noisemakers. Passover is April 1st, the highlight of which is the Passover Seder—a meal accompanied by the Exodus story, from slavery in Egypt, to freedom in the Promised Land. The 40-year trek through the desert featured 10 plaques, visited upon the enemy, parting of the Red Sea as a Hebrew escape route, and other awesome miracles.
